

MLT, Haematology, 1 full-time position, overnight shift.

Responsibilities

- Performs routine diagnostic laboratory procedures in haematology and coagulation according to established methodologies and procedures
- Ensures all equipment, supplies, reagents, and techniques are standardized, calibrated and quality controlled to confirm accuracy, reliability and precision for all tests performed
- Proactively engages with the Quality Management System and implements corrective actions, escalating as required
- Reports and documents unexpected or non-conforming events/incidents.
- Maintains specimen testing integrity and efficient turn-around-times to ensure client and patient satisfaction
- Responsible for processing specimens, testing, documentation of procedures and results, maintenance, stocking, and cleaning of work area
- Demonstrates exceptional customer service and proactively engage with physicians, patients, and colleagues
- Participates in problem solving in work organization and workflow
- Assists with the evaluation and implementation of new technology

Qualifications

- 5 years laboratory experience as a Medical Laboratory Technologist in a hospital or medical laboratory setting with two years in haematology
- Knowledge of LIS and other computer systems as applicable
- Experience in reading blood films
- Understanding and application of CQI

Licence/Certification

Current registration in good standing is required with the College of Medical Laboratory Technologists of Ontario.

- CMLTO Registration Certificate (required)

We welcome and encourage applicants from diverse backgrounds. We are committed to providing accessible employment practices that are compliant with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act. If you are selected to move forward, please advise us if you require an accommodation.

Please forward your cover letter and resume in one document to hr@alphalabs.com.

While we thank all applicants, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.